

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion England - SOAS University of London

Click on the links for more information.

Welcome to SOAS University of London

Main Page on Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion

Campus Demographics:

- 50% of students from the UK come from a BAME background (Black and Minority Ethnic)
- 14% of students disclosed a disability with 44% being for mental health conditions
- 68% of all students identify as female

Services the Campus Offers

- Disability and Neurodiversity Services
 - Accessible accommodation
- Counseling Services
- University Faith Services including multi-faith chaplaincy and places to worship
- Useful links about religion, disability, the LGBT community, and women's rights

Student Organizations You Can Join

While there are many clubs for you to join, some notable organizations that focus on identity are highlighted below. This list is not exhaustive:

Race & Ethnicity Organizations

There are over 20 societies dedicated to welcoming different cultures.

Religious Organizations

Islamic Society Ahlulbayt Islamic Society

Christian Union Catholic Society

Sikh Society

Disability Network

Disabled Students Society

LGBTQ+ and Gender Identity Organizations

Drag Society Conch Art Collective

Pride@SOAS Feminist Society

Notable Projects and Awards

SOAS has established a Decolonising Working Group as well as hired a Black Student Support Coordinator role to address barriers to racial equality.

SOAS is an Athena SWAN Bronze award winner - an award acknowledging the efforts and steps taken to promote gender equality of all genders when it comes to the pay gap, gender representation across disciplines, and leadership

SOAS is a part of the Race Equality Charter Mark - The REC Mark is a charter which recognizes excellence in an institution's commitment to race equality.