Services the Campus Offers

Disability Services

LGBTQ+, trans, and non-binary support for staff and students: services and information

PRISM: organization for staff and students to create safe spaces to meet on campus.

iRise is a network primarily for staff but has inclusive spaces for students who identify as BAME - Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic.

This acronym is commonly used in the UK and Ireland. While it has the inherent issue of being a vastly overgeneralizing term, it is only used for self-identification purposes and does not replace distinct experiences.

Notable Projects and Awards

Stonewall: Intersectional discussion around race and sexual identity.

Queen's University Belfast currently has two Gold, eight Silver and five Bronze Departmental Athena SWAN Awards as well as a Silver Institutional Award. Athena SWAN Awards are given to institutions that promote and advance equality of all genders in higher education.
