From its breath-taking views and off-the-beaten-track locations, to its love of Maori culture and sport; New Zealand offers you a chance to explore and experience this wondrous landscape through Arcadia Abroad’s programs.

From your arrival, you will be supported by Arcadia’s expert staff as they help you adapt to life abroad. As well as supporting you, they will help you create a truly unique semester where you will experience your new environment and make new friends both within the vibrant Arcadia community, and with fellow New Zealanders and other international students.

“Going abroad gives you the opportunity to truly separate yourself from the everyday. It provides so much freedom, which, when met with curiosity, allows you to explore and discover new and wonderful things about yourself...”
— Christine Nardecchia, Villanova University Student, University of Auckland
