

	Course Policies For email communications, students must use their Arcadia University email account. Students are responsible for any information provided by e-mail or through Intranet postings. Plagiarism Representation of another’s work or ideas as one’s own in academic submissions is plagiarism, and is cause for disciplinary action. Cheating is actual or attempted use of resources not authorized by the instructor(s) for academic submissions. Students caught cheating in this course will receive a failing grade. Fabrication is the falsification or creation of data, research or resources to support academic submissions, and cause for disciplinary action. Late or Missed Assignments Will not be accepted for grading. Students with Disabilities Persons with documented disabilities requiring accommodations to meet the expectations of this course should disclose this information while enrolling into the program, and before leaving the United States so that appropriate arrangements can be made. Title IX Statement Arcadia University is committed to providing a learning, living, and working environment that is free from discrimination. The University has an Interim Policy Prohibiting Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct detailing our commitment to preventing and addressing such behavior. I understand the impact that sexual harassment and sexual misconduct can have and am committed to doing my part to foster an environment that is safe and equitable. Please know that all faculty on campus are mandatory reporters. This means that if you disclose an experience of sexual harassment or sexual misconduct to me outside of a classroom discussion, a writing assignment, or a University-approved research project, I must share what you reported to me with the Director of Arcadia’s Office of Equity and Civil Rights/Title IX Coordinator, Nora Nelle (nellen@arcadia.edu). This does not mean that you will have to pursue an investigation or go through a grievance process. Even if you do not choose these options, the Office of Equity and Civil Rights/Title IX can provide supportive measures and other resources to you. If you or someone you know has experienced sexual harassment or sexual misconduct, please know that you are not alone. If you would like to speak to someone confidentially, confidential resources are provided on the Office of Equity and Civil Rights website.
