

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion England - University of Oxford

Click on the links for more information.

Welcome to University of Oxford

24,000 students attend University of Oxford.

Demographics:

- 23% of students are Black & Minority Ethnic (BME)
- 54.2% of students are female
- 10.4% of students have a disability

To start reading about the University of Oxford's Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion resources, visit their Main Page.

Services the Campus Offers

University of Oxford offers a variety of student wellbeing resources. Visit their landing page for Equality and Diversity Resources to browse the full catalog.

- Faith Groups - find a community to practice your faith, or contact Race, Religion, and Belief Advisor race.equality@admin.ox.ac.uk.
- Disability Support - more information about accessibility services, contact at disability@admin.ox.ac.uk.
- Harassment Support - resources and advisor network.
- LGBTQ Resources - information on queer- and trans-friendly businesses, gender-neutral toilets, sexual health, and more.

Student Organizations You Can Join

The University of Oxford offers student groups where you can meet others who share your identities.

- Campaigning Organizations
- Cultural Societies
- Discussion Groups
- Faith-Based Organizations
- Political Groups
- Social Groups
- Volunteer Organizations

Notable Projects and Awards

The University of Oxford has been recognized with several awards in diversity and inclusion.

- Bronze Athena SWAN (uplifting women in STEM)
- Bronze Race Equity Charter
- Top 100 in Stonewall Workplace Equality Index for LGBTQIA+ equality

Learn more about the university's Equality Work.