

	Representation of another’s work or ideas as one’s own in academic submissions is plagiarism, and is cause for disciplinary action. Cheating is actual or attempted use of resources not authorized by the instructor(s) for academic submissions. Students caught cheating in this course will receive a failing grade. Fabrication is the falsification or creation of data, research or resources to support academic submissions, and cause for disciplinary action. Late or Missed Assignments Will not be accepted for grading. Students with Disabilities Persons with documented disabilities requiring accommodations to meet the expectations of this course should disclose this information while enrolling into the program, and before leaving the United States so that appropriate arrangements can be made. Title IX Statement Arcadia University is committed to assuring a safe and productive educational environment for all students. In order to meet this commitment and to comply with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and guidance from the Office for Civil Rights, the University requires faculty members to report incidents of sexual violence shared by students to the University's Title IX Coordinator. The only exceptions a faculty member's reporting obligation are when incidents of sexual violence are communicated by a student during a classroom discussion, in a writing assignment for a class, or as part of a University-approved research project. Information regarding the reporting of sexual violence and the resources that are available to victims of sexual violence is set forth at https://www.arcadia.edu/university/policies-guidelines/title-ix.
Prerequisites:	None.
Country and Program Connection:	Leaders in social entrepreneurship in Scotland are developing systematic change in cultural, educational, health, and environmental sectors that are enhancing the quality of life for the end-users as well as providing direct and indirect social benefits to the community, the region, and country. As the Scottish government continues adopting policies to incentivize social entrepreneurs to develop models of social change, it is important to develop a deep understanding of the leaders who are influencing change in the world.

Intellectual property copyright Arcadia University