

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion New Zealand - University of Otago

Click on the links for more information.

Campus Overview

As of 2020, 20,721 students attend University of Otago.

Students by ethnicity

- 79.2% white/Pākehā
- 11% is Māori,
- 20% is Asian
- 5.5% Pacific
- 3.6% Middle Eastern, African, and Latin American

Students by gender

- 60% female
- 39% male
- 1% gender diverse

Services the Campus Offers

Visit the homepage for University of Otago's Student Services to learn more about your options for student support.

- Disability Support
- International Student Support
- Chaplain
- Rainbow Community Support
- Sexual Violence Support
- Māori Centre

Student Organizations You Can Join

University of Otago's Student Association offers free membership to all students. Browse their webpage to learn more about clubs, volunteer opportunities, and campus events.

You can meet students who share your identities at the university's Clubs and Societies. The directory offers clubs that celebrate students of different ethnicities, faiths, and interests.

Notable Projects and Awards

Read University of Otago's Equity and Diversity Policy to learn more, or contact christina.hulbe@otago.ac.nz.