

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion Australia - University of Queensland

Click on the links for more information.

<h3>Campus Overview</h3> The Australian Census does not collect information specific to race or ethnicity, rather focusing on ancestry. Generally, the term “student/person of color” is not used in Australia. As of 2019, University of Queensland has 55,309 students, 55% of which are female. 20,213 students are international from 142 countries. Visit University of Queensland’s Valuing Diversity page for more information.	<h3>Services the Campus Offers</h3> University of Queensland offers student support for different identities and needs. Below are some resources you can access. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Health Services• Counselling Services• Indigenous Awareness & Support• Disability & Accessibility Services• LGBTIQ+ Support Services• Religion & Multi Faith Services
<h3>Student Organizations You Can Join</h3> University of Queensland has over 205 student organizations. Browse the Clubs and Societies directory, where you can filter by Hobby/Special Interest, International, Religious, Social Justice/Political, and more. Additionally, you can join a number of career programs for women via the Women's Advocacy Network.	<h3>Notable Projects and Awards</h3> University of Queensland is participating in the Athena SWAN SAGE Pilot, work undertaken to address gender equality in arts, humanities, social sciences, business and law (AHSSBL), and in professional and support roles, and for trans staff and students. Read more about the university’s Strategies, Plans & Governance for Diversity and Inclusion.