

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion England - University of The Arts London

Click on the links for more information.

Welcome to University of The Arts London

University of The Arts London hosts 18.000 undergraduate students.

- 43.4% of students are international from over 110 countries
- Approximately 1/3 of students come from Black, Asian, or Minority Ethnic background
- 13% of the population identifies as gay, lesbian, bisexual, or “other.”
- Over 3500 students use disability services.

Visit the university’s Student Diversity page to learn more about diversity initiatives, or review their Equal Opportunity Policy.

Services the Campus Offers

University of The Arts London offers Student Services for your wellbeing. Visit the landing page to browse or follow the links below.

- Counseling - make an appointment, attend a drop-in session, or seek emergency support
- Chaplaincy - make an appointment for pastoral and spiritual care
- Disability and Dyslexia - meet with a disability advisor for support
- Health Advice - drop-in sessions, find a GP, emergency help
- Incident Reporting
- If you have questions about transitioning, gender specific facilities, or name changes, email student.diversity@arts.ac.uk

Student Organizations You Can Join

Visit the Arts Students’ Union webpage to learn more about events and organizations where you can meet others who share your identities.

- LGBT Student Society
- Cultural Clubs
- Liberation Groups
- Faith Groups
- Political and Campaigning

Notable Projects and Awards

Read University of The Arts London’s Annual Equality and Diversity Progress Reports to learn more about upcoming diversity and inclusion initiatives.