Student Testimony Quote from Caroline R, a student in 2018 who studied in Wellington, from our blog post. If you're worried about being isolated, unsafe, or discriminated against in Wellington, don't worry. As long as you aren't coming here with the expectation that everything will be perfect, or that everyone you meet will be respectful, you'll be pleasantly surprised. This city has a rich and vibrant queer community, and you'll likely meet a host of beautiful people who will challenge you and change your life for the better. There will always be room for change and growth as our community makes strides towards equality, and Wellington gives me hope for the course of the future.
